Scholarships for QESOSA Schools

In support of the education mission of the QESOSA in Hong Kong, the Ontario chapter has, for over a decade, donated scholarships to students of the OSA primary schools. In 2009, the board decided to renew our commitment for 2010-2019 and extend our support to the OSA secondary schools.

A new “QESOSA Ontario Dr. Arthur Hinton Scholarship” was created to commemorate the Ontario chapter’s 20th Anniversary. This, together with the existing “QESOSA Ontario Ut Serviatis Scholarship”, will be awarded to students of the following schools:

- QESOSA Secondary School (www.ss.qesososa.edu.hk/)
- QESOSA Tong Kwok Wah Secondary School (www.tkwss.qesososa.edu.hk/)
- QESOSA Primary School (www.qesosaps.edu.hk/)
- QESOSA Branch Primary School (www.bps.qesososa.edu.hk/)

All four schools are located in Tin Shui Wai in the New Territories, a district populated by new immigrants and lacking in community resources. (Please see the reverse side for more information.)

We need the support of all our members in this meaningful cause. In true QES spirit, please give generously and support quality education for future generations.

QESOSA Vision in Education

The QESOSA Education Promotion Organisation Limited, as the school sponsoring body, envisages a school that is a learning-centred, learner-centred, value-driven, data-driven, excellence-seeking, achievement-seeking, publicly accountable, ever-evolving learning community of independent and reflective professionals engaged in knowledge-based and ethical practices to prepare children -- through diversified curriculum and innovative programmes that cater for the full range of their abilities and learning styles -- for life-long learning and contribution to society.

About Tin Shui Wai (TSW)

Tin Shui Wai New Town (天水圍新市鎮) is the latest satellite town developed in north-western New Territories of Hong Kong. It is the second new town in Yuen Long. Development of the northern part of TSW began in 1998, 10 years later than the southern part. As of 2007, the New Town has a population of 268,800.

TSW's "sadness" has been exacerbated by the town's poor connectivity. A single bus journey from Tin Shui Wai to downtown Kowloon costs at least HK$20.70.

Characteristics of TSW

- Residents are mostly low income families and new immigrant families.
- A densely populated town without sufficient public facilities (e.g. no "town hall", no proper public library, no standard water sports facilities etc.)
- Costly transportation to other parts of Hong Kong - as a result:
  - TSW has been effectively cut off from the rest of Hong Kong as if it were an island.
  - It deters job seekers from taking up employment offered in localities that would require them to spend half of their meagre income on bus fares.
- Willing, but not always capable, parents; children typically have rather low aspirations.
